

the Catholic footprint

"Christ leads us to go out from ourselves more and more, to give ourselves and to serve others." ~ Pope Francis

Our faith inspires us to seek a common good. We don't help others because they are Catholic, but because we are Catholics. The Maryland Catholic Conference works in Annapolis to give a voice to those have none: the imprisoned, the immigrant, the homeless, the unemployed, the unborn child, the hungry, struggling children and families, the elderly, the sick.

Below is a snapshot of the Catholic "Footprint" in legislative District 27. Through our dioceses, parishes, schools, ministries, charities and individuals, we try to make our state a place of fairness for all by providing concrete resources to those in need.

OUR SERVICES

Angel's Watch Shelter 27A

P.O. Box 613, Hughesville

www.catholiccharitiesdc.org

For many years Angel's Watch Shelter, located in Charles County has been a source of safety and new beginnings for women and their children fleeing domestic violence or homelessness.

Body of Christ Community and Farm 27A

3325 Martha Place, Waldorf

A 106-acre farm in Malcolm, run by Black Leadership and Christ's Kingdom Society founder Rev. Pittman, where clubs and groups could harvest and sell vegetables and learn the values of hard work and perseverance.

Fortitude Housing 27A

P.O. Box 613, Hughesville

www.catholiccharitiesdc.org

Fortitude Housing is a program that approaches homelessness differently. Each resident in the program is given their own fully furnished apartment, along with one-on-one case management services that help connect residents with employment support, social security benefits, education and other support services that help rebuild a life. With the crisis of homelessness removed, many residents find they can rebuild their lives. Apartments are located in Charles, Calvert and St. Mary's counties.

Project PATH 27A

P.O. Box 613, Hughesville

www.catholiccharitiesdc.org

Project PATH is an outreach program for Charles County residents who are homeless or are at risk of becoming homeless. The program concentrates on men and women with mental health issues, some of whom may have problems with substance abuse.

St. Sebastian Townhomes 27A

P.O. Box 613, Hughesville

www.catholiccharitiesdc.org/stsebastian

The program offers its clients permanent housing and one-on-one case management services that help to connect residents with resources targeting individuals experiencing mental health issues or physical disabilities.
