The Maryland Catholic Advocacy Network (CAN) provides a simple and quick way for you to communicate with your elected officials. The Maryland Catholic Conference advocates on behalf of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, Archdiocese of Washington and Diocese of Wilmington for public policies that promote the dignity of the human person and social justice. Help bring the Gospel values to the public square by joining CAN, which features:

- Email alerts on legislation
- Quick, easy-to-use, pre-drafted messages to send to your elected officials
- Updated information on the issues
- News stories from around the country
- Pick the issues that matter to you: education, family life, respect life, and/or social concerns
- Strict protection of your information, which will not be shared with other organizations
