The Maryland Interfaith Legislative Committee (MILC) was launched by Maryland's religious institutions and their human service providers in 1979 to articulate their shared concern for and moral wisdom regarding care for their neighbors and the larger human community. MILC advocates on public policy positions which, determined by consensus, stem from its members' shared religious values. MILC concentrates particularly on issues that affect vulnerable and marginalized members of our society, including those who are poor, aged, and new to our country.

MILC Members: American Jewish Committee Washington Regional Office; Archdiocese of Washington; Baltimore Jewish Council; Catholic Charities of Baltimore; Central Maryland Ecumenical Council; Christian Science Committee on Publication for Maryland; Community Ministries of Rockville; Episcopal Dioceses of Maryland and Washington; Interfaith Works; Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington; Lutheran Office on Public Policy in Maryland; Maryland Catholic Conference; Maryland Muslim Council, Inc.; Presbytery of Baltimore; United Church of Christ Central Atlantic Conference; United Methodist Church Baltimore-Washington Conference; Unitarian Universalists for Social Justice of Baltimore and Washington.
