The Maryland Alliance of Catholic School Families and Teachers, operated under the auspices of the Maryland Catholic Conference, provides a united voice through which Maryland's Catholic school community can communicate its needs and interests to the state's elected officials. The alliance is currently involved in efforts to:

- ✓ Maintain funding for the Nonpublic School Textbook/Technology Loan Program
- ✓ Include Catholic and other nonpublic school teachers in benefits available to public school teachers, such as teacher scholarships and the Quality Teacher Incentive Tax Credit
- ✓ Pass legislation to create the BOAST Maryland Tax Credit, which will encourage businesses to invest in scholarship programs for nonpublic school students and grants for teachers
